CONCLUSION	170

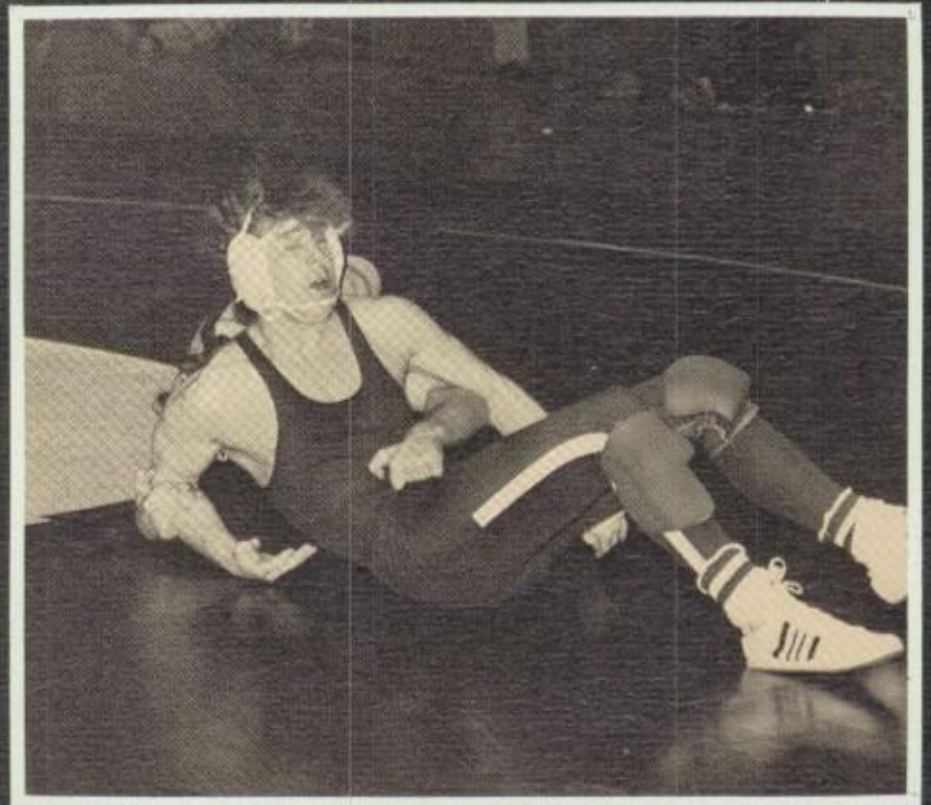

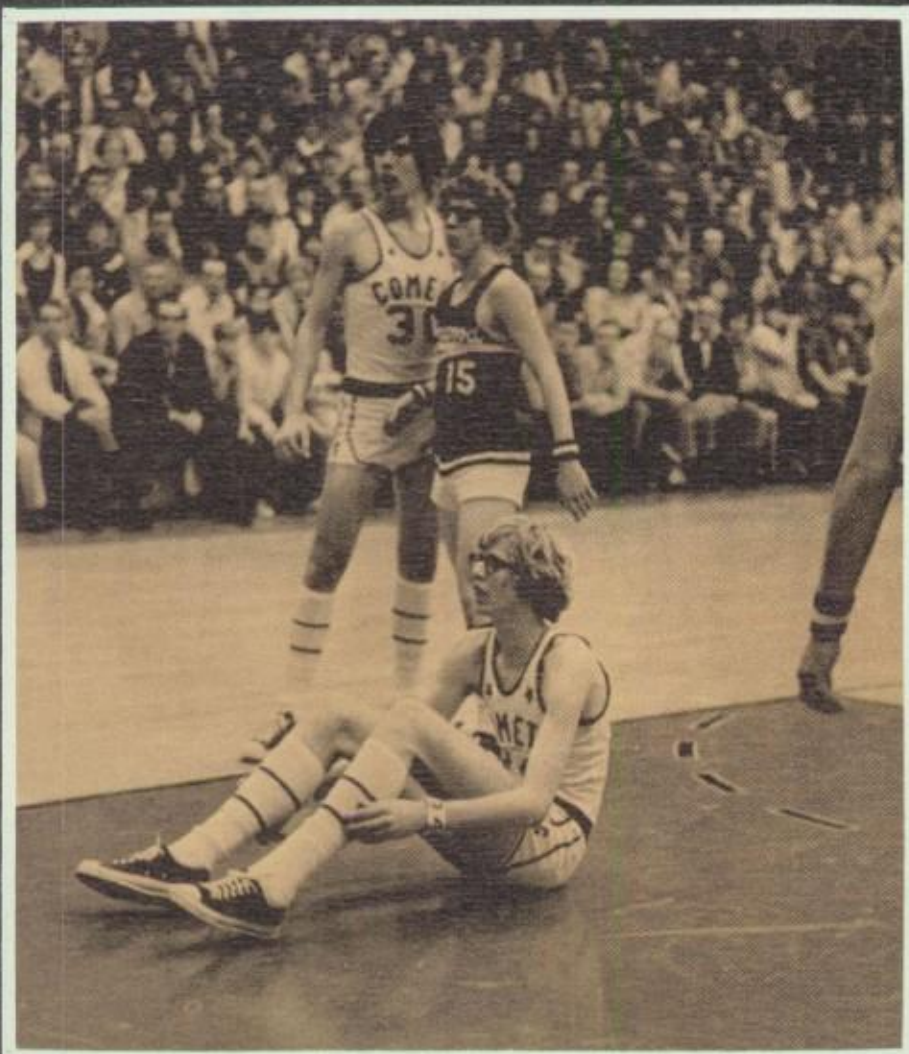

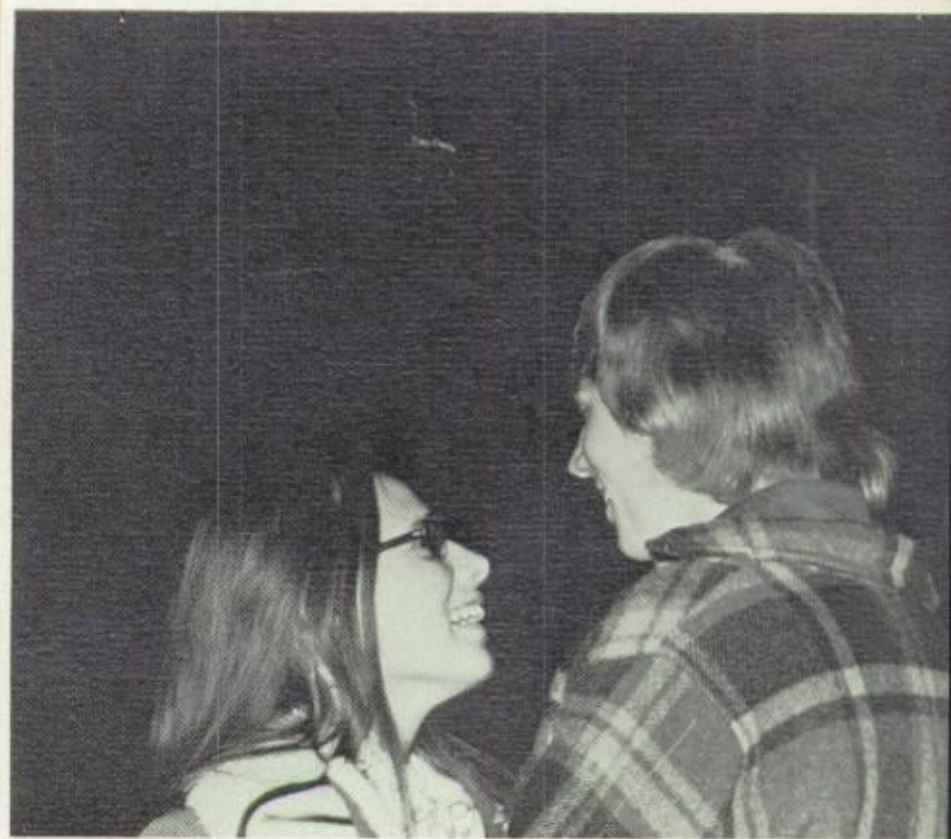

Victory is sweet indeed and has its own reward, but more important still should be what the contest is about.

There's so much I don't yet understand the how and why of growing. Maybe if you take me by the hand, we'll have an easier time of learning and knowing.

Rod McKuen

Come alive as a person aware of yourself, of all your talents, your strong points and weak ones and become aware of the uniqueness of other people.

The road is long with many a winding turn
That leads us to who knows where, who knows where.

Bob Russell

Friendship is a coming together of hearts      an exchange of joys.

Sometimes I can laugh and cry and can't remember why
But I still love those good times gone by.

James Taylor

 F. As the crowd eagerly awaits the announcement of our 1973 Homecoming Queen, senior attendant, Kim Campbell and Tom Briggie cross the field
 G. And then the official announcement as Mike Detzel congratulates Queen Lori Chambers.

Lori Chambers Reigns As 1973 Homecoming Queen

The beginning of this year's Homecoming celebration was the traditional bonfire on Thursday night. The festivities began with the auctioning off of athlete's treasured items such as Tom Skee's baby pictures and Paul Mancinotti's plastic ball and bat. Because of the pouring rain, the crowd stayed in the gym to cheer our team on. Majorettes, cheerleaders, and pep band contributed to arousing spirit in the hearts of the fans. Enthusiasm stayed high through the parade on Friday. It consisted of each senior candidate riding in her own car especially decorated for her. The procession started at Brunner School, drove through town past the Junior High, where it was joined by the band, majorettes, and finally arrived at the football field. The game with Otsego was a complete success. The highlight was Lori Chambers being crowned our 1973-74 Homecoming Queen at halftime. Our mighty football team topped off the evening with a 21-8 win over the Knights.

Humorous Skits for Homecoming

"Good grief, Charlie Brown!" Charlie, Lucy, and the whole Peanuts gang were on hand to provide entertainment for this year's Homecoming Skits. In the Homecoming game, Charlie proved to be just as clumsy as ever when Lucy pulled the football away just before he kicked it. In another skit, the homecoming festivities began with the football game, and reached a climax with the crowning of Dick Zalesak as Homecoming Queen. The Homecoming Skits provided an amusing start for the annual celebration.

A. Dick Zalesak queen — Men's Lib had to happen sooner or later. Dick Zalesak reigns as queen with his court, John Bailey and Mark Schreuder. B. Connie Garey and Jacey McClain shake hands before the big football game. C. "Well, you see, doctor, I have this problem . . ." Charlie Brown (Don Oleszczuk) gets psychiatric help from Lucy (Corie Cruthers). D. Is this cheerleading tryouts? Rob Marko takes over as cheerleader. E. Lucy (Rita Dietrich) is up to her old tricks again as she pulls the football away from Charlie Brown (Lee Roecker). F. Boy cheerleaders — Genoa's never had any cheerleaders quite like Tim Brooks, Dan Widmer, Rob Marko, and Don Widmer. G. Snoopy (Amy Clark) and friends Chris Rasar and Mike Byersmith eagerly await the Homecoming football game.

"Cinderella" Casts a Spell on the Play Audience

On the nights of November 9 and 10, when the curtain went up for the Junior Class Play, the audience was transported to a world of fairy godmothers, handsome princes, and "be home by midnight or your coach will turn back into a pumpkin." After the Ball, Prince Charming, intrigued by Cinderella's beauty, set out to find and marry the owner of the sparkling slipper he had found. The ugly stepsisters were crushed when they couldn't squeeze their fat feet into the fragile glass slipper. Cinderella's dreams came true as Prince Charming gently placed the slipper on her delicate foot, and they lived happily ever after.

Santa Comes to the Xmas Formal

The theme for this year's Winter Formal, held on December 15, was "Sleighbells in the Snow." G.A.A. members put in many hours of hard work turning the cafeteria into a winter wonderland. The couples entered through a candy cane gateway and were greeted by the jingling of sleigh bells and the twinkling of Christmas tree lights. As the couples danced to the music of "Down Home," Santa Claus made his traditional entrance. "Sleighbells in the Snow" became a happy memory.

A. Ho! Ho! Ho! And have you been good all year? B. Here comes Santa Claus! C. Sana Thielen, her date, Rob Marko, and Kim Herman relax and enjoy the holiday atmosphere. D. Santa listens intently as Sue Fitzpatrick gives him her list of Christmas wishes. E. "Mark, you're not listening to anything I'm saying." Jamie Libertino tries to get Mark Bailey's attention. F. The romantic setting makes a perfect evening for Sandy Lau and Tom Szyпка.

Nostalgia Theme of Senior Play

The class of '74 brought back memories of bobby socks, slicked-down hair, and soda shops with The Perfect Idiot, presented February 23 and 24. Dan Tennyson, the highly unpopular school genius, wanted to go to college, but his parents didn't think he was ready. This problem formed the basis for an elaborate scheme to send Dan to college. This plan involved the use of a hypnotic device to tutor the Center High's star athlete, dancing lessons, and a widespread campaign to make Dan Tennyson popular. Despite a few problems, the plan was a success, and Dan found himself on his way to college.

"Funny Girl" Turns Out as Super-Successful Musical

"Funny Girl," this year's musical, is the story of Fanny Brice. Mrs. Brice, Fanny's mother, wants to find a suitable young man for her daughter to marry. Throughout her crusade to find a husband for Fanny, her friends try to convince her that she needs a husband, too, since she is a widow. Meantime, Fanny meets a dashing young gambler, Nick Arnstein, and goes from a poor little "nobody" to a smashing success in the Ziegfield Follies. Fanny has her own ideas about getting a husband, and soon after she meets Nick and becomes a star, she and Nick are married. But the play ends on a sad note, when Nick leaves Fanny.

A. Mrs. Brice (Jamie Libertino) and her poker-playing friends (Sally Hoddinott, Theresa Gargac, and Deb Hartman) concentrate on their card-playing. B. Practicing for her part in the Ziegfield Folies is Fanny Brice (Carol Levee). C. A maternity wedding dress? Strange things can happen! D. Fanny hams it up as she sings "Second-Hand Rose." E. "What in tarnation are you lookin' at, Fanny?" Emma (Becky Booth) asks. F. Mr. Keeney (Tom Shessler) and Nick Arnstein (Mark Schreuder) argue over Fanny Brice's talent. G. Fanny bellows out the miseries of being a poor girl in "Second-Hand Rose."

A. Orchestra member, Marene Fondessy, devotes all her attention to her music. B. Eddie Ryan (Paul Tester) wears a rather unusual costume as Mrs. Brice (Jamie Libertino) and Mrs. O'Malley (Deb Hartman) hem Fanny's dress. C. Mr. Krichbaum and the orchestra put in many hours of practice for the musical.

A. With Mr. Millinger's help, Theresa Gargac and Becky Booth explore all the goodies in the make-up kit. B. Keeney's chorus girls practice for their next performance. C. Fanny Brice and her fellow performers in the Ziegfield Follies hold a discussion in their dressing room. D. Cindy McGrew, Jacey McClain, and Deb Salinas make a trio of beautiful brides.

Band Members Participate in Many Musical Activities

Genoa High's band members participated in a variety of musical activities this past year. A. The band went to State Contest and triumphantly returned with a No. 1 rating. B. With the help of other Genoa musicians, band members provided music for the annual musical. C. Throughout football season, the band was on hand to provide half-time entertainment at all the games. The pep band played at every home basketball game. Other activities the band participated in included a program of exchange concerts with the Perrysburg band and a music workshop with T. U. music students.

Groups Perform at Halftimes

The majorettes provided lively half-time entertainment throughout the football season, doing routines to traditional favorites like Hawaii Five-O and The Screamer and to new tunes like The Morning After. The pep band took over for basketball season, introducing some new music, like Popcorn, Ben, and Superstar, but still playing favorites like Sweet Georgia Brown, Mississippi Mud, and The Stripper. In football season, Drum Majorette, Sandy Lau, led the band and in basketball season, Sue Ackerman conducted the pep band.

Variety Accented Daily in Classrooms

The best word to describe the past year's classes is varied. Several new courses, such as Gourmet Cooking, Advanced Sewing, and Selected Studies were added to the curriculum. The media center proved to be a valuable tool for Social Studies classes, who used the facilities to prepare debates, speeches, and slide-tape presentations. Language classes got first-hand knowledge of the customs of foreign lands by having Spanish and French holiday celebrations. New equipment — a vault to be used with the mini-tramp — was added to the gym. All these changes amounted to great variety in classes.

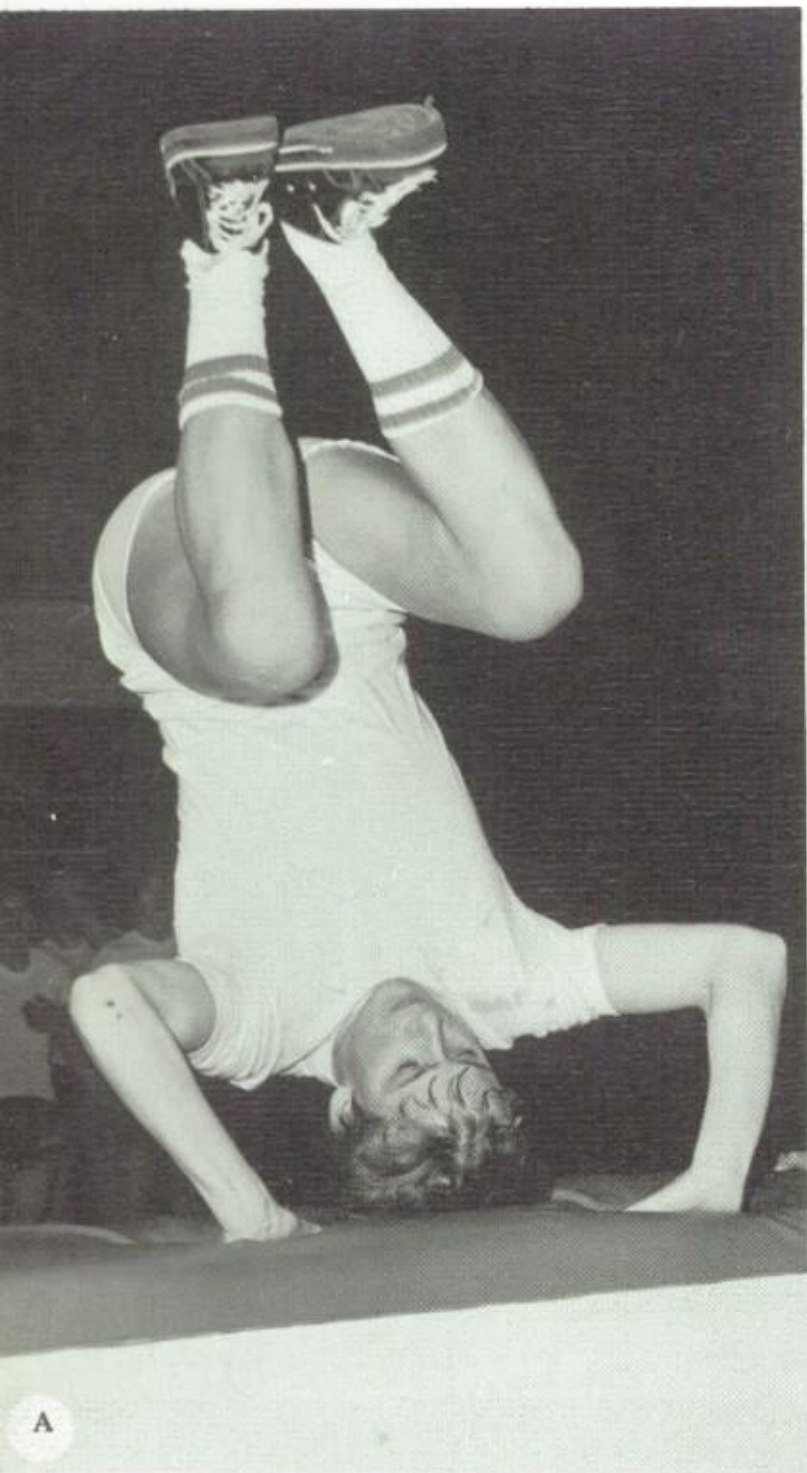

A. Fuzzy little creatures like this make Biology class more enjoyable. B. AV worker, Jim Spurgeon, is a big help in running the Media Center's facilities. D. A study in concentration — Theresa Gargac listens intently to a French tape. E. Soldering electronic equipment requires a steady hand on the part of Brian McGinnis and Dave Castilleja. F. Tim Jester uses a lathe to put the finishing touches on his shop project.

A. As he does a flip on the new vault, Gary Moritz's world turns upside-down.
B. Janet Pugh demonstrates her creativity as she uses the pottery wheel.
C. Crab soccer is an old favorite for girl's gym class.

A. Hawaii Five-O gives John Bailey a chance to show his talent as a drummer. B. Dan Widmer does some last-minute work on his prize-winning cannon. C. "Dear Mr. Green, We received your letter of the 25th ..." Joyce Langel concentrates on her shorthand.

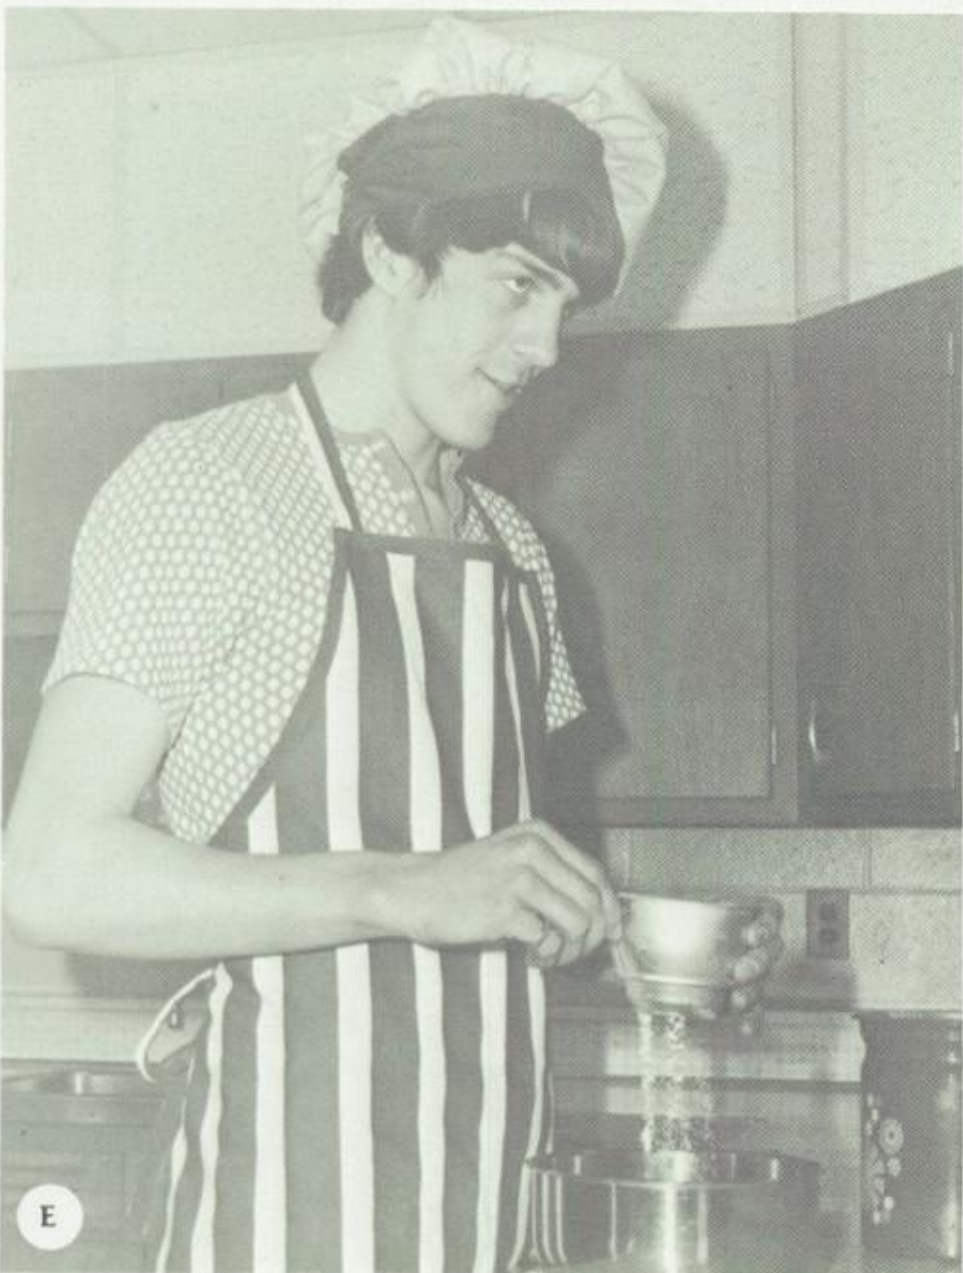

A. Band members sometimes mistake their music slots for the locker room. B. Thanks to OWA boys like Mike Serviss, the school's windows are always clean and bright. C. Penta students Tom Porath and Ken Werner learn a skilled trade in Machines class. D. Athletic ability is necessary for Chuck Kistner as he does a flip on the parallel bars. E. "Chef" Ken Brown in his homemade apron learns the correct way to sift flour in Bachelor Living class. F. Doing different types of lettering looks easy for Art students Jean Briggie and Gaylr Duty. G. Dan Powers demonstrates his sewing talents in Bachelor Living class.

Rossford held off a dangerous Genoa passing attack to post a 21-14 triumph in the season opener. The next week stunned with the loss of their top two running backs, the Comets fell to Lake. The next week came with the first league loss to Eastwood. With this beginning, it looked bad for the mighty Comets — but from then on they didn't lose a game, finishing second in the S.L.L. with a 5-1-1 record and capturing the Celestial Ball from Oak Harbor for the second straight year.

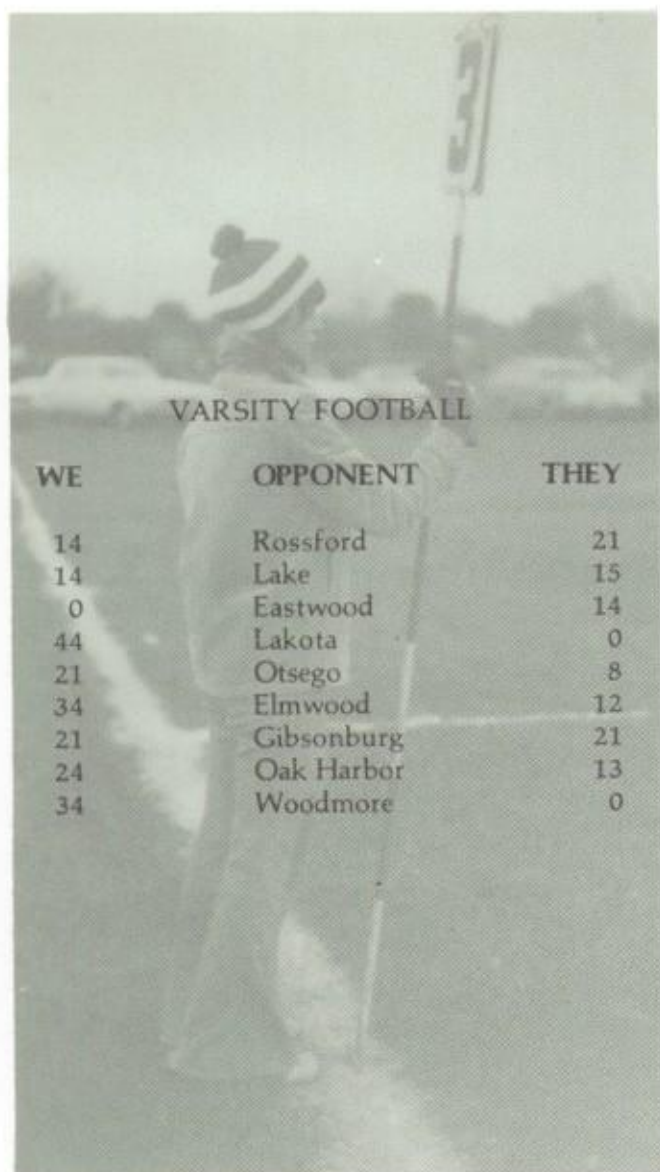

A. Coach Firestone sends Donnally in with signals. B. Rick Spitler gains valuable yardage. C. Jim Feckley passes, bringing the Comets closer to a touchdown, and D. Another 6 points is added, when Jerry Lach goes for a touchdown.

VARSITY FOOTBALL: FRONT ROW: J. Feckley, R. Spitler. ROW 2: F. Huss, L. Dennis, W. Geise, M. Schuster, M. Diekman, D. Parks, G. Klavinger. ROW 3: M. Schrueder, D. Zalezak, P. Dazley, S. ## The Undefeated Freshmen Comets

The Freshman Comets finished their great season with a sparkling 6-0-1 record, out-scoring their opponents 139 to 12. Led by an awesome offense and a tenacious defense, Captain, Gary Mathews led all scorers with 47 points, followed by John Gerkenmeyer, Terry Buckley, and Steve Vogelpohl. Freshmen will not forget Mathews' 55 yard pass to Buckley in the end zone, or Pinkerton's recovered fumble.

Comets Streak Through Season

The Mighty Farmers of Genoa streaked through basketball season with a 22-2 record. The Comets began the season with a loss to Devilbiss but came back to be undefeated for the rest of the regular season and to win the S.L.L. championship for the second year in a row. Tournament play began and so did some new traditions at Genoa. Fans decided to show their pride at being "farmers." Bib overalls became a regular costume at tournament games, and the stands blazed with red farmer handkerchiefs. Excitement and spirit mounted as the Comets advanced farther and farther in the tournaments. The Comets streaked on to win Sectional, District, and Regional titles. For the first time, since 1938, a Comet team went to Columbus. But all good things must come to an end, and so the Comets' winning streak was ended by a hot Bishop Hartley team.

Freshmen Capture SLL Championship

The freshman basketball team ended its season with 14 wins and 1 loss. The team was undefeated against league competition with a 7-0 record. In the SLL Freshman Tournament, the Genoa Frosh won 3 straight to capture the championship and 1st place trophy. The big victories came against Rossford, Eisenhower, and Eastwood. The only loss of the season was by one point against a fine Port Clinton team. The freshman Comets averaged 43 points per game while giving up an average of 32 points per game to their opponents.

Basketball Team to State Tournament

After winning 16 to 1 in the regular season, the mighty Comets hit the long tournament trail that led to Columbus. They won from Eastwood and Woodmore in the sectional at Fremont, and then from Rossford and Calvert in the district at Whitmer. Winning the regional next at BGSU sent the team off to Columbus and the State Basketball Tournament.

Wrestling-Bowling

The Wrestling team enjoyed a very fine year. What was supposed to be a rebuilding year turned out to be a successful season, with the Comets ending in 3RD place in the S.L.L. Picked in the pre-season for the 7th place finish, the Genoa season was best summed up by a quote from the Oak Harbor coach, "Probably the most surprising thing in the S.L.L. tournament was Genoa's Third place finish."

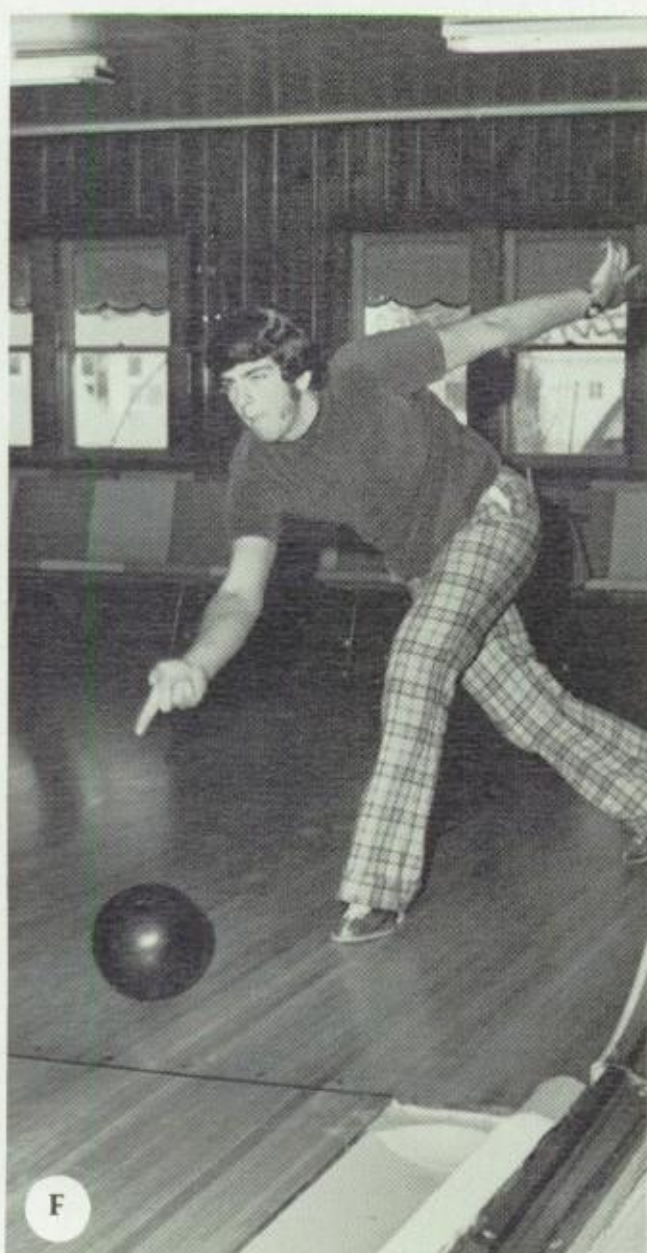

The Genoa Bowling teams had a difficult season in 1973-74. Despite a good effort, victories were hard to come by. The team members bowled well, but the competition was greater this year than in the past. Mark Adams was selected as this year's outstanding bowler.

Baseball Team Wins League and Goes to State

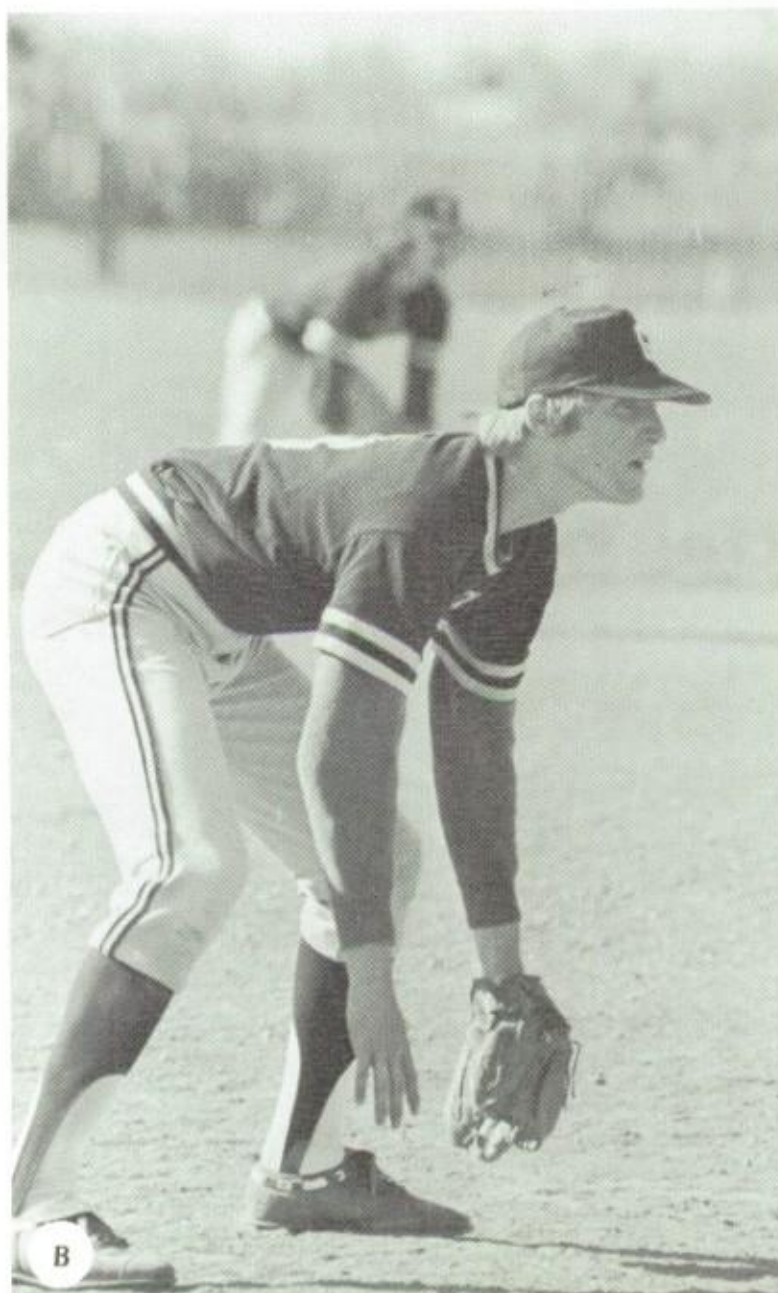

The Comet baseball team had no trouble running up an impressive record this season with 20 wins, 6 losses, and 1 tie to its credit. In tournament action, the team easily won District, Sectional, and Regional titles, and advanced to the State tournaments in Columbus.

The team placed four selections on the S.L.L. all-league baseball first team. Being tabbed from the Genoa Comets' championship squad was probably the best one-two pitching punch in Northwestern Ohio, towering Ron Hammye and a 7-1 record and fast-ball pitcher Jeff Shaneck who also notched seven wins with his only loss coming in state tournament in Columbus. Joining their teammates were Genoa starters Mike Schuster, an outfielder, and Bill Welch, the all-league third-base pick. Jeff Shaneck was chosen to play in the All-Star game in Columbus.

An Improved Season for the Golf Team

The Genoa golf team, although improved, was hindered by a lack of consistency. Their overall record of 4-7-1 was a vast improvement over last season. The season was highlighted by upset victories over Gibsonburg, Lakota, and Woodmore. In S.L.L. competition, the Comets were 4-2-1, tied for third in dual matches.

A. GOLF TEAM: ROW 1: D. Skees, D. Samsen, E. Falter, M. Boltz, R. Greener, B. Fleck. ROW 2: K. Batdorff, D. Powers, Coach Welch, T. Powers, W. Angel, D. Hartman. B. Dan Powers displays the concentration necessary to be a good golfer. C. It looks as though Rick Greener got himself into a rather unusual situation. D. Golfers often get into strange predicaments, as Mark Boltz demonstrates.

Tom Skees and Jerry Lach Outstanding in Track

A. Mike Vogelpohl strains to cut his time at practice. B. TRACK SQUAD ROW 1: S. Smith, S. Campbell, R. Garcia, M. Akins, R. Campbell, J. Blumenthal, D. Widmer, L. Kalmback, P. Dazley, D. Spafford, S. Akins, S. Dreier, D. Zalesak. ROW 4: J. Dean, M. Valentine, J. Lach, T. Fisher, T. Buckley, A. Lozoya, R. Opfer, T. Wicks, P. Gruetter. ROW 5: D. Marko, T. Skees, R. Marko, Coach Miller, Coach Liller, Coach Pickerel. C. Ready, Set, Go! Bob Spafford, Phil Fredricks, and Aultie Gilliland await the starting gun. D. Running the hurdles looks easy for Ric Lommerse. E. "I hope I land in the right place" Jerry Lach demonstrates his high jumping skill. F. Richard Garcia takes the lead in a race with Steve Campbell.

Cheerleaders Pep Up Sports Events

Throughout the basketball and football seasons, the freshman, reserve, and varsity cheerleaders were always on hand to stir up spirit and provide encouragement for the mighty Comets. Many new cheers were introduced, and the cheerleading squads livened up old cheers with gymnastic stunts. When tournament season rolled around, something new was added to the cheerleaders' uniforms — the famous red "farmer" handkerchiefs. Throughout the year, the cheerleaders made sports events more exciting.

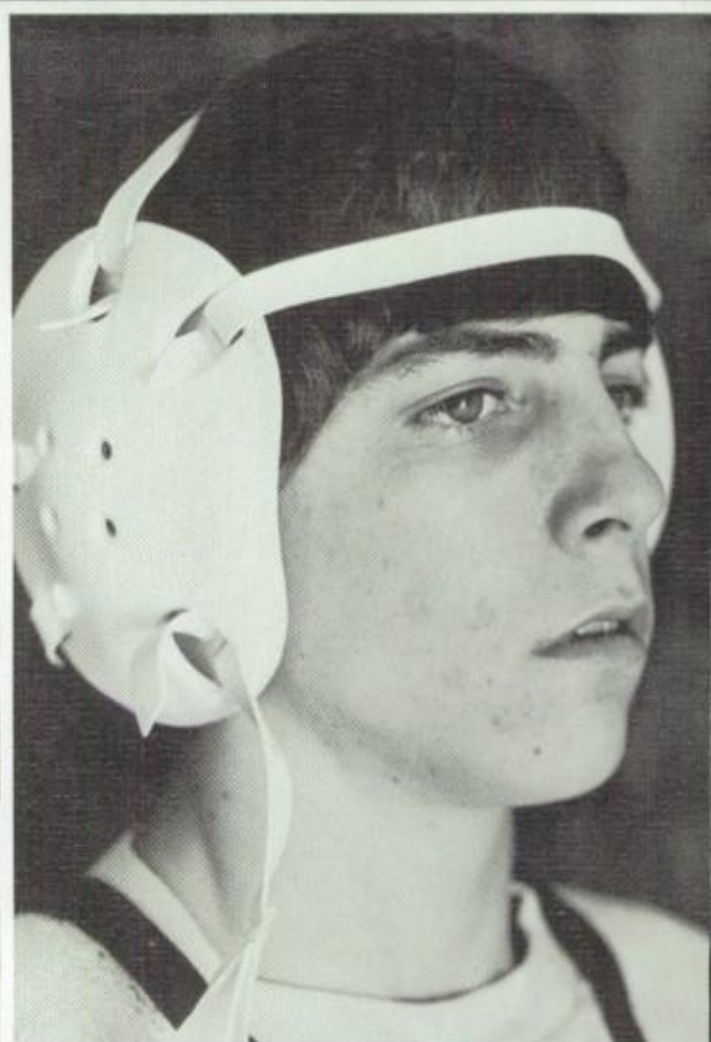

A. "Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar, All for Genoa, stand up and holler!" Mary Lee Smith and Robin Purkey demonstrate their cheerleading ability. B. Varsity and reserve cheerleaders cheer the mighty Comets on to victory. C. VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: TOP ROW: Vernie Flores, Angie Firestone. ROW 2: Kim Tippey. ROW 3: Jamie Libertino, Kim Herman. ROW 4: Brenda Lau. D. RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: Cyndi Cornell, Robin Purkey, Linda Cutcher, Mary Lee Smith. E. FROSH CHEERLEADERS: Peggy Korn, Sharon Hayes, Sue Fitzpatrick, Pat Briggie. F. Angie Firestone leads another Comet cheer.

A. Board of Education: Mr. James Brossia, Mr. Lawrence Gruetter, Mrs. John Badger, Mr. Merle Porter, Mrs. Barbara Smith, Mr. Dale Reeder. B. Secretaries: Mrs. Linda Lobdell and Mrs. Maxine Dunn. C. Superintendent: Mr. Ivan Dangler.

Organization Keeps Genoa High Running

The administration, faculty, and personnel are very necessary people at Genoa High. The Board of Education, which welcomed three new members this year, makes many important decisions throughout the school year. Teachers spend many after-school hours advising committees, clubs, and other activities. The cooks serve well-balanced, hot meals, and the custodians keep the school clean, neat, and in repair. Genoa High couldn't run without the services of these people.

A. Assistant Principal: Mr. James Firestone. B. Principal: Mr. Roland Eaton. C. Counselors: Mr. David Hitchen and Mrs. Louise Casper.

who needs more power plants anyhow!

You do.

If you want to use the products you own today and will own tomorrow. Most are powered by electric energy.

If you want to work. Every job requires the use of electricity in some form.

If you want to live in a quality environment. Most pollution control equipment runs on electric power.

You need power plants . . . for all your wants.

I can't believe the time is here already for me to be writing the conclusion to the yearbook. It seems as though senior year just started, and now as I write this, I'm thinking of all that has happened this past year.

Being an editor is a strange job. By the time you get used to it, it's not yours anymore. But it's more than a job; it's a learning experience. It's an experience I'll never forget.

I would like to thank the staff for all the work they did. It wasn't easy, but we made the deadlines! I'm grateful to Mr. Earl Parks for his ideas and time. I'd like to thank Powell Studio and their photographer — after all, what's a yearbook without pictures! But most of all, my sincere appreciation and gratitude goes to Mrs. David. She's the one who really puts out the yearbook — checking layouts, recropping, and smoothing ruffled fellings. Thank you for everything, Mrs. David.

Well, it's over. It's a relief, yet it's also sad to have a big part of your life over. But I'll have my Limelight and my memories. After all, memories are what this book is all about. Memories of homecoming, State, graduation — and so much more.

Dawn E. Cornell
1974 Limelight Editor
